Event Details:

The annual Denver Chalk Art Festival captivates 150,000+ visitors who come to watch the asphalt in the Golden Triangle neighborhood transform into a bright and colorful street museum. This year's festival will spotlight more than 150 unique professional, amateur and student artists, each spending up to three days on their hands and knees transforming pavement canvas into masterpieces. These street paintings range from original artwork to reproductions of classics. Full event details can be found at www.denverchalk.art

Attendees are encouraged to utilize RTD's Light Rail & 16th Street Mall Shuttle, utilize ride share (Lyft or Uber), or carpool and utilize garages in the Golden Triangle neighborhood and surrounding area.
