Event Description

Join us for the Lowrider Show and Shine at the Denver Art Museum. Admission to the event and the Denver Art Museum will be free all day. The Denver Art Museum Lowrider Show and Shine is a moment to celebrate with community the artistry and presence of lowriders in Denver, and the opening of the exhibition Desert Rider: Dreaming in Motion. The exhibition, open from July 9 to September 24, 2023, highlights how Southwestern Latinx and Indigenous artists express identity, pride, and a sense of community by transforming vehicles – such as lowriders and skateboards – associated with the western U.S.

This family-friendly event will feature lowriders, local vendors, delicious food, music, and free admission to the Denver Art Museum.
